Non-degree status policies

Non-degree admission is designed to meet the needs of students who do not wish to pursue a degree.

Students considering non-degree status should be aware of the following:

- Non-degree students may not transfer more than 30 credits from this status to any undergraduate degree-seeking program, or more than nine credits to a graduate degree-seeking program.
- Non-degree students are not eligible to receive financial aid, student employment or graduate assistantships.
- Non-degree students are not eligible to participate in student government or intercollegiate athletics.
- Non-degree students may not be eligible for Veterans benefits. Consult with your VA certifying official.
- Transcripts from previous institutions, high school, and/or results of college entrance exams may be required.
- Students interested in using non-degree credit for initial teacher certification or recertification in a new field will be admitted to the College of Education.

Visiting Students

A visiting student takes graduate credits for transfer to his or her parent institution. Visiting students must:

- Apply to the Graduate School 30 days prior to registration.
- Submit a letter to the Graduate Student Services Office from the parent institution's graduate dean indicating that he or she is (1) admitted to that institution, (2) in good standing, and (3) taking courses at New Mexico State University that are acceptable to the parent institution.
- Submit any additional materials required by the NMSU department.
- Be admitted by the NMSU department.
- Visiting students are not eligible for undeclared status or for graduate assistantships.

Deadlines

Department deadlines and requirements for applications are listed at <http://prospective.nmsu.edu/graduate/degrees/>
